Introduction

Thank you for expressing an interest in the unit of competency BSBESB402 Establish legal and risk management requirements of new business ventures.

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to identify and comply with legal and risk management requirements of the business or new business venture, including negotiating, creating and planning for legal contracts used within the business, where required.

The unit applies to those establishing a business providing self-employment, as well as those establishing a new venture as part of a larger organisation.

The training you will undertake for this course is nationally accredited and on successful completion of the course, a Statement of Attainment will be issued to you through Blue Dog Training.

Completion of the course will allow you to apply for a Queensland Building and Construction Commission (QBCC) Trade Contractor Licence or Nominee Supervisor Licence. Further details regarding the requirements for these specific license classes can be found in the document - Technical qualifications for licensing available at Technical qualifications for QBCC licensing: \(epw.qld.gov.au\).

This unit of competency is may also be used as a general elective for the qualification CPC40120 Certificate IV in Building and Construction (Building).

Please take time to read the information in this document as it is very important you select the right course for you.

Course Details

The Blue Dog Training flexible on-line course allows you to fit your study into your work, family and social commitments. You work through the course at your own pace, downloading the workbook and other resources from our website. A trainer is available to support you every step of the way.

The program is designed to progress the learner through competency performances. The learning and assessment materials are separated into segments, as follows:

- Identify legal and risk management requirements relating to business
- Implement procedures and processes to comply with legislative and regulatory requirements
- Negotiate and arrange contracts
- Mitigate business risks

The course is designed to be completed sequentially. You are required to access learner resources to support your learning and knowledge development and complete specific tasks.

You are also required to dedicate time to undertake self-paced study of industry, government, specialist and departmental websites to obtain a broad awareness of the skills and knowledge required to identify and comply with all regulations affecting the running and management of a business. Suggested websites include but are not limited to:

- Australian Tax Office
- Australian Government (Information and Services)
- Chamber of Commerce and Industry (State and National)
- Queensland Government (for business and industry) and other State and Territory government website
- Work Cover and Workers Compensation (National and individual State and Territory websites)

- Workplace Health and Safety (National and individual State and Territory websites)

To successfully complete this unit of competency you demonstrate the ability to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including evidence of the ability to:

- Establish legal and risk management requirements for at least one business or new business venture, and implement procedures for meeting them
- Create at least one contract with a supplier of goods or services to business or new business venture
- Identify, assess and treat at least three different risks specific to business or new business venture and prioritise risks with highest probability of occurrence and greatest negative impact.

Under fee-for service arrangements you can commence your course at any time throughout the year. Under industry funding arrangements the timelines for enrolment and completion are linked to the funding cycle which applies to your enrolment. These details will be explained to you prior to acceptance of your enrolment.

The length of the course is 60 nominal hours. It is expected you will be able to complete the course within six (6) weeks from enrolment.

You have a maximum of three (3) submission attempts to successfully complete the assessment activities for this course. If you are not deemed competent after the third attempt, you will be required to re-enrol in the program.

Resources

Resources you will require for the course include:

- office equipment and resources
- business technology including internet access
- Current version of Microsoft Word and Acrobat Reader
- relevant legislation, regulations, standards and codes
- relevant workplace documentation and resources
- interaction with others.

Training Costs

The cost of your course will depend on whether your training and assessment is being subsidized by Construction Skills Queensland (CSQ) or if you are undertaking the course on a fee-for-service basis.

Please note, places for CSQ subsidized training are limited and available on a 'first come first served' basis.

1. Fee-For Service

The cost of this course under fee-for-service arrangements is $460. This amount must be paid at the time of enrolment.

2. Construction Skills Queensland Subsidy

The CSQ Short Courses program provides funding for the up-skilling and cross-skilling of eligible workers in the building and construction industry.

This training focuses on assisting workers to adapt to safety, licensing and regulatory requirements as well as to changing job requirements brought about by new products, processes, methodologies, consumer demands and technologies.

CSQ recognises this training provides existing workers, industry workers currently out of work or between jobs, and business owners with flexible solutions to update their skills and knowledge in specific and targeted areas.

It also provides opportunities to progress careers and move within the industry as well as enhancing individual efficiency and business productivity.

Under this program CSQ contributes to the cost of the training at a value set by CSQ.

What this means for you for this course is:

- If you are currently working in the Queensland building and construction industry you may be eligible to have your course cost subsidized by CSQ
- If you are eligible for funding CSQ will contribute $360 towards the cost of your course, reducing your student fee to $100; and
- The $100 student fee must be paid at enrolment:

Under the CSQ Short Courses program Eligible Participant means:

- a) A participant who has the right to work in Australia and is an eligible worker or unemployed eligible worker in Queensland.

AND MUST NOT:

- b) Be an employee of an Authority (Employees of Local Councils are acceptable)
- c) Be currently enrolled and participating in a Queensland secondary school program (School base apprentices and trainees are acceptable)
- d) Be a teacher or assessor or existing worker of a registered training organisation (RTO)
- e) Be funded by contracted training Authority or such other source for delivery of the same Training being undertaken as part of this Program
- f) Be a participant seeking Verification of Competency (or Determination of Competency) services.

No Fees for eligible apprentices and trainees

Under the CSQ Apprentice Advance Loading if you are an eligible apprentice or trainee student fees DO NOT apply as the CSQ covers the full participant cost.

To be eligible to receive the Apprentice Advance Loading, you must be:

- An apprentice or trainee undertaking an CSQ approved apprenticeship or traineeship or
- An eligible worker or unemployed eligible worker in the first year out of your CSQ approved apprenticeship or traineeship and you must commence training within 365 days of the completion date in DELTA

- A cancelled apprentice or trainee who was undertaking a CSQ approved apprenticeship or traineeship that has been cancelled and you are currently accessing State Government funding to complete your institution based training

Definitions for terms used throughout this program can be found at: <https://www.csq.org.au/building-and-construction-industry-definitions-glossary/>

Authenticity of Assessment

The assessment work you submit as evidence of your knowledge, skills and experience must be completed by you and not anyone else. Blue Dog Training's assessment judgement processes will enable this authenticity to be confirmed through the final discussion that a Blue Dog Training assessor will have with you once your assessment evidence has been submitted and reviewed.

This discussion takes the form of a 'competency conversation' and is designed to confirm, through open-ended questions, how you have applied your knowledge and skills related to the evidence you have provided.

Once it has been conducted it enables the Blue Dog Training assessor to make their professional judgement knowing that all of the 'Rules of Evidence' have been applied.

How Do I Enrol?

Once you have made your decision, you will need to complete the online form which is available on our website.

Before you enrol, you must read the Blue Dog Training Student Handbook which is available on our website. T his Student Handbook provides information about the training services, procedures and policies of Blue Dog Training. As part of the enrolment process, you will be asked to agree to abide by these policies and procedures.

You will need to provide documentation to confirm your identity and if applying for CSQ funding you will need to provide documents to substantiate your eligibility.

Details of the documentation you will need to provide are available on the enrolment application.

How Do I Make Payment for My Training?

Payment can be made via Direct Deposit or Credit Card. Further details are available on the enrolment application.

When Can I Start?

Once your application has been processed and your payment receipted, you will receive an email containing your login details.
